TTC 2000 National Speed Awareness Course
TERMS & CONDITIONS

1. You will receive confirmation of your course within 7 working days of your booking. If you have provided an e-mail address the booking confirmation will be sent to that address. If you have not received confirmation within 7 days you must ring TTC 2000 to confirm your course allocation. It is your responsibility to check documentation and contact TTC 2000 if details are missing or incorrect.
2. If you use the postal booking form you will be allocated a course. Please check this booking to ensure it is suitable. If it is unsuitable you must ring TTC 2000 within 10 working days to advise of this and to book an appropriate course. If you do not contact us we will assume your acceptance of the course offered.
3. 50% of the course fee is required as a deposit when booking courses via post and telephone. Places are on a first come first served basis. This is not refundable.
4. Any outstanding balance must be paid 2 weeks prior to attending your course.
5. Once a course is accepted, a rebooking charge will be incurred for any changes made by you regarding the course date or time (providing there is sufficient time within the deadline given to you by the police). Please see reverse for rebooking charges.
6. Failure to produce photographic identification may result in non-completion of the course. Every effort will be made to offer an alternative date, provided there is sufficient availability and time within the police deadline. A further full course fee will be required. If you do not possess photographic identification you must ring TTC 2000 prior to the course date.
7. It may be possible in extreme cases to offer an alternative date (providing there is sufficient time within the deadline given by the police). Under such circumstances you must contact our office on 0845 270 4363 (option 2). Places are limited and reserved on a first come first served basis. A rebooking charge may be applicable, please see reverse for charges.
8. In the event of you being unable to attend or complete a course due to illness, a medical certificate (Doctors are entitled to charge a professional fee for this) will be required within 7 days in order that your course can be considered for rebooking or a refund. Rebooking and refunds are subject to an administrative charge of £25.
9. In the event of you being unable to complete or attend a course for any other reason than stated in points 7 & 8, the fee is non-refundable. Every effort will be made to offer an alternative course date, provided there is sufficient availability and time within the police deadline. A further full course fee will be required.
10. Every effort will be made to accommodate any special requirements providing TTC 2000 has been notified. If no such indication has been made, TTC 2000 will not be held responsible for failing to provide these requirements.
11. The course is provided in the English language. It is your responsibility to provide an appropriate interpreter if your command of English is such that you would have difficulty in understanding the course. In Wales courses are available in either Welsh or English. Please contact TTC 2000 on 0845 2704363 if you have any questions relating to this.
12. You must arrive 15 minutes before your course commences. Late arrivals will be refused entry and their case may be referred back to the police. If entry is refused, you must contact our office immediately on 0845 270 4363 (option 2) to inform us of this. A full course fee may be required to rebook. No refund will be given.
13. Satisfactory course completion is dependant upon attendance throughout the 4 hour duration of the course and making a full and positive contribution. If you leave the course before it finishes, it will classify as a non-completion. No refund will be given. A full course fee will be charged to rebook.
14. Any use of abusive or foul language towards TTC 2000 staff and its contractors at any time, will result in your file being returned to the police and no further courses will be offered. In addition, anyone using or threatening to use violence will be prosecuted. No refund will be given.
15. You must attend in a fit state to participate fully. Any evidence of alcohol in the breath or use of illicit drugs will result in removal from the course immediately. No refund of course fee will be made and no further courses will be offered. Your file will be returned to the police.
16. Mobile phones/pagers must be switched off for the duration of the course.
17. No children will be admitted to the course. Please ensure that childcare is arranged for the entire duration of the course.
18. In the event of TTC 2000 being unable to deliver your Speed Awareness Course due to unforeseen circumstances beyond our control, we will reschedule your Speed Awareness Course as soon as possible free of charge.
